Abstract
No more than 200 words briefly specifying the aims of the work, the main results obtained, and the conclusions drawn.
Keywords: 3–6 keywords (in alphabetical order) which will enable subsequent abstracting or information retrieval systems to locate the paper. The words should be separated by semi-colons (;).

Introduction
This is the first paragraph – text set with no indent but justified. This is our preferred style for all first paragraphs after headings [12pt Times New Roman].
All subsequent paragraphs are indented and justified.
The Introduction section should clearly state the background and the objectives of your work.

Material and Methods
A brief description of the methods/techniques used (the principles of these methods should not be described if readers can be directed to easily accessible references or standard texts).

Results and Discussion
Provide a summary and discussion of results in sufficient detail to support the conclusion(s). Refer to appropriate tables and figures. Briefly explain and interpret data with respect to introduction and other relevant research findings. Limitations of project should be included and suggestions for future research may be provided.

Please insert any figures and tables in numerical order, and describe them in the body of the text and position them close to where they are first cited. Make sure all figures and tables will fit within the text area.

Table 1.1 This is a style for Table Titles. “Table 1.1, 1.2 etc” should be in bold. Table captions should appear above tables.

Conclusions
Please give a brief explanation of the significance and implications of the work reported.

References
List references cited in text, in alphabetical order as (10pt Times New Roman):

These should be to accessible sources. Please ensure that all work cited in the text is included in the reference list, and that the dates and authors given in the text match those in the reference list. References must always be given in sufficient detail for the reader to locate the work cited (see below for formats). Note that your paper is at risk of rejection if there are too few (<10) or too many (>25) references, or if a disproportionate share of the references cited are your own.
